

Wellness Code

a HEALTH & HEALING EXPO
 233 E. Fulton St.
 7th Floor
 Grand Rapids, MI 49503

Saturday November 15, 2014

10 a.m. - 6 p.m.

As Grand Rapids continues its quest to become a medical Mecca in the Midwest, more opportunities arise for traditional as well as holistic and alternative healthcare modalities. Wellness Code, a Health & Healing Expo gives providers opportunity to meet their public, educate about alternatives and raise awareness about how your services, techniques or products can help each individual decipher their own wellness code.

Set within the historical Masonic Center's Grand Ballroom and adjoining conference and meeting spaces, the Expo also offers a central, easy to find location, abundant free parking and a secure environment for vendors and those attending. (To boost attendance, admission will be free.)

Collaborating partner, Film Farm will video and/or audio-tape all presentations. These recordings will be made available to vendors for free online after the event. Arrangements for custom editing for your website or YouTube can be made with Film Farm, as well.
